

Gilded Bronze Imperial Greyhound On A Base - Display Piece

200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Length : 10cm

Height : 6,5cm

Description

Sculpture from around 1820 depicting a reclining greyhound in gilded bronze (ground gold / original mercury gilding). The animal is rendered with great anatomical precision and wears a finely chiseled collar. It rests on a double stepped base, adorned with a beautiful frieze of water leaves typical of the decorative repertoire of the late Empire / Restoration period. Free shipping within France
