Description

An elegant abstract sculpture in solid bronze, created in the 1970s and signed and numbered by the artist. This refined work embodies the spirit of post-war modernism, when sculptors explored purity of form, balance, and movement through simplified geometric and organic compositions. Despite its compact dimensions, the sculpture possesses a remarkable visual presence. The artist has skillfully manipulated mass and space, creating a captivating interplay of volumes, shadows, and perspectives that shifts depending on the viewer's vantage point. Cast in solid bronze, the work features a rich surface and a beautiful patina, highlighting the material's natural warmth and sculptural quality. The abstraction allows for multiple interpretations, making it both an intellectually stimulating work
