Description

An elegant pair of large sconces in finely chiseled and gilded bronze. These pieces embody the finest elements of the neoclassical repertoire (Louis XVI style, late 19th century / Napoleon III period). The decoration is exceptionally rich, blending magnificent laurel branches with delicately veined foliage, geometric Greek motifs, as well as scrollwork and floral rosettes. As shown in the photos, the structure features a majestic arch. The vertical shaft is elegantly anchored to the wall, while the sinuous arm rises to support a finely crafted candleholder shaped like a corolla of leaves.
