

Pair Of Greco-roman-style Marble Pedestals With Lion-paw Feet, 20th Century

11 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marble

Description

: This impressive pair of Greco-Roman-style pedestals, crafted from marble in the 20th century, draws inspiration from the monumental architectural forms of classical antiquity. Their robust proportions and sculptural design make them ideal supports for statues, urns, busts, or architectural ornaments of great significance. These pedestals are distinguished by their finely carved lion's paw-shaped feet, a motif inherited from the decorative arts of ancient Greece and Rome and widely adopted thereafter in the Neoclassical style. Symbolizing strength, authority, and prestige, the lion's paw lends the composition elegance and visual power. Crafted from marble with exceptional attention to detail, these pedestals combine architectural presence with decorative refinement. Their imposing

Dealer

Florin Antiques

Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme

Tel : 0034 671 362 406

Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31

Madrid 28004

dimensions allow them to be used as striking standalone elements, while also serving as exceptional supports for large sculptures. Inspired by the grand decorative traditions of classical villas and palaces, this pair of chairs would be particularly suited to French gardens, entry halls, galleries, terraces, or prestigious interiors. A highly decorative and versatile pair that brings timeless classical elegance to any space. Dimensions (each): Height: 100 cm Width: 60 cm Depth: 60 cm Condition: Very good condition. Slight signs of wear due to age and use. Marble surfaces and carved details are well-preserved