Description

Antique Gilded Working Table Clock, 1800s with a vertical design featuring a round dial set atop a two-handled vase with a removable lid, supported by two anthropomorphic figures whose legs are formed by two leaf-shaped scrolls. The mechanism is mounted on a shaped rectangular base supported by five feet. The enameled dial features Roman numerals for the hours and Arabic numerals for the minutes. The double winding mechanism powers both the clock and the chime for the hours and half-hours. In the center, Lassalle & C. A' Paris 1 B. Des Capucines indicates the manufacturer. The clock is in working order and in good condition.
