Description

Beautiful carved walnut oval frame, crafted in the Black Forest in the late 19th century. This frame is known as "monoxyll" because it is carved from a single piece of wood. The details are beautifully rendered, with intertwined branches and leaves running around the oval. The top is adorned with a young bird, its beak open and wings spread. The piece is in good original condition, with a few minor, normal signs of wear. Dimensions: 15 x 11.5 cm. Shipping included for mainland France.
