Description

A magnificent set of four monumental warrior sculptures, hand-carved from Italian marble in the 1990s and inspired by the heroic traditions of Greco-Roman antiquity. Impressive in size, these imposing figures embody the strength, dignity, and martial virtues celebrated in classical art. Each warrior is depicted in a powerful pose, clad in armor and classical garments inspired by the military iconography of ancient Greece and Rome. The sculptor has paid exceptional attention to anatomical details, drapery, weapons, and facial expressions, creating sculptures of remarkable presence and visual impact. Carved from high-quality Italian marble, the figures feature a beautiful, luminous surface and finely executed details. Their monumental dimensions and architectural character make them ideal focal
