Greek Marble Bust On A Marble Pedestal, 1950s

8 450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marble

Description

An elegant Greek-style marble bust, created in the 1950s and inspired by the famous fragmentary sculptures of classical antiquity. Carved from marble and mounted on a later marble base, the work evokes the timeless beauty of ancient Greek statuary and the enduring fascination with archaeological fragments.The sculpture highlights the idealized human form, emphasizing the harmony of proportions, the delicacy of the musculature, and the purity of lines that characterized the finest works of classical Greek art. By presenting the figure as a torso, the piece recalls the ancient marbles preserved in the world's greatest museums, where fragmentary sculptures are admired as works of art in their own right.The natural qualities of the marble, combined with the elegant simplicity of the

Dealer

Florin Antiques
Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme
Tel : 0034 671 362 406
Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31
Madrid 28004

composition, create a refined decorative object that bridges the gap between antiquity and modern design. Its impressive dimensions make it ideal for large interiors, galleries, entryways, libraries, or architectural settings inspired by the classical tradition.A remarkable example of mid-20th-century craftsmanship and a timeless tribute to the artistic ideals of ancient Greece.Dimensions:Height: 130 cmWidth: 50 cmDepth: 30 cmCondition:Very good condition. Slight signs of wear consistent with age and use. Marble surface and later marble base well preserved.Keywords: Greek torso, marble sculpture, classical fragment, neoclassical decor, archaeological style, Grand Tour, marble statue, mid-20th-century sculpture, ancient Greek art, decorative marble torso.