Description

A pair of bronze warthog sculptures, made in Italy in the 1950s. Displaying remarkable realism and artistic sensitivity, these impressive animal sculptures capture the strength, character, and untamed spirit of the African warthog. Each figure is finely modeled with meticulous attention to anatomical detail, from the powerful bodies and expressive heads to the characteristic tusks and textured skin. A magnificent green patina enhances the sculptures, accentuating the depth of the modeling and giving the bronzes a rich and distinguished appearance. Inspired by the great European tradition of animal sculpture, these works brilliantly combine naturalistic observation with decorative elegance. Their imposing dimensions and dynamic presence make them ideal centerpieces for gardens, terraces, hunting
