

Diorama, 19th-century Sailing Ship

400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Length : 55cm

Width : 41cm

Depth : 10cm

Description

A rather impressive diorama of a tall ship. We know that these boats, made by sailors, were intended to serve as votive offerings, and I found this one particularly moving in its naivety, seeming a bit cramped within its frame. The background setting is simple: the French flag and a few seagulls...It is in good condition, though a bit dusty behind its original glass.
