Description

An exceptional and monumental solid silver punch bowl, crafted by the prestigious Spanish silversmith Jesús Yanes, one of the most renowned names in 20th-century Spanish luxury silversmithing. Crafted in solid silver, this impressive piece combines imposing dimensions with refined craftsmanship. Its elegant proportions, generous capacity, and finely crafted surface attest to the high level of quality traditionally associated with the Yanes workshops, suppliers to major private collections and institutions in Spain. Weighing a remarkable 12.5 kilograms of solid silver, this bowl possesses an extraordinary presence and a luxurious character. Originally designed as a ceremonial punch bowl or centerpiece, it can also serve as an impressive decorative piece for a dining room,
