Description

An elegant bronze bust depicting a classical female figure, inspired by the famous sculptures brought back from the Grand Tour and the neoclassical tradition. The woman is depicted wearing a richly ornamented tiara and dressed in a flowing classical gown, evoking portraits of Greek and Roman nobility. Crafted with remarkable attention to detail, the sculpture features finely modeled facial features, an elaborate hairstyle, and graceful drapery. The serene expression and idealized beauty reflect the aesthetic principles that captivated European collectors and aristocrats from the 18th century onward. This bust recalls the works brought back by travelers on the Grand Tour, eager to bring home artistic souvenirs inspired by the masterpieces of Antiquity. It thus combines
