Russia, Circa 1900. Gilded Silver Milk Jug.

385 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 9,8 cm

Description

Russia, circa 1893Milk jug in vermeil silver resting on a circular pedestal with a rounded top. The concave body, accented with fillets and finished in two finishes--matte and glossy--is adorned with an engraved floral design centered on a blank medallion. The neck, widely flared and undulating, opens generously. Side handle with a scroll attached to the rim.84 zolotniks of silver. Made in Moscow. Assay marks, city of Moscow mark, and master silversmith's mark in Cyrillic characters.Dimensions:Height: 9.8 cmLength: 10.4 cmWidth: 6.8 cmCapacity: 100 mlWeight: 102 g In very good condition, with no chips or restorations.

Dealer

Lucas L&E
Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables
Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600