Russia, Circa 1900. Pair Of Gilt Silver Cups.

1 200 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Height : 13,7 cm

Description

Pair of silver-plated champagne or wine glassesImperial Russia, 1896-1908An elegant pair of glasses resting on tiered circular bases, adorned with beaded friezes. The truncated conical body, flaring upward, features in its center an unadorned oval medallion surrounded by an engraved geometric design. This extends into a rich floral design engraved on a guilloché background covering the entire bowl.84 zolotniks of silver. National hallmark in use between 1896 and 1908, accompanied by the assayer's mark and the master silversmith's mark in Cyrillic characters.Dimensions:Height: 13.7 cmDiameter at rim: 7 cmBase diameter: 6.2 cmCapacity: 150 ml eachTotal weight: 242 gCondition: Very good condition.Note: a slight dent on the upper rim of one of the cups.

Dealer

Lucas L&E

Argenterie ancienne, Arts liturgiques, Arts Russes, Arts de la tables

Mobile : 0615687757

Maisons-Laffitte 78600