Description

Brief description A striking antique mirror, folk art from around 1820. Made on an oak panel, with original polychrome paint. Features three pencil portraits: a Napoleonic soldier at the top, a child, and a woman. The depiction of the soldier suggests this is a posthumous work. A few small areas of missing paint, a trace of restoration on one of the frames, and a slightly cracked glass pane. All of this gives this piece a great deal of character and authenticity. Dimensions 48 cm high, 26 cm wide, and 3 cm thick. Price EUR 650. Additional photos and similar items on our website: Old-School-Bazaar.com
