Description

A pair of candelabra, three-light candlesticks, in the Louis XV Rococo style, made of silver-plated metal. Curved branches terminating in finials on leaf-shaped sconces; the central holder is flower-shaped. The three-light girandole can be removed, thus transforming the candelabra into a candleholder. Note: wear on the silver plating - coppery sheen, one candleholder missing, play in the screw thread of two candle holders, signs of oxidation under the base. Period: late 19th century. Dimensions: height 38cm, width 30 cm, weight 2.5 kg each.
