PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Bernhard Keil (1624-1687), Three Roman Children

17 500 EUR

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Description

Bernhard KeilDanish painterHelsingør 1624 - 1687 RomeThree Roman ChildrenOil on canvas: 72.5 x 96.8 cmUnsignedFrame: 91.4 x 115.9 cmAbsolute transparency: our acquisition price = 13.500 EUROur export price = 16.806 EURThe attribution to Keil has been independently confirmed by Dr. Fred Meijer and Dr. Guido Jansen.BernhardKeil was an influential, international painter of Danish origin who specialisedin Rome in realistic representations of the life of simple people, often ofchildren. His art is an interesting mix of the very diverse influences that hepicked up during his travels to in and Italy. During his youth he had even beena pupil during two years of Rembrandt in Amsterdam. Ourpainting dates from Keil's Roman years (1656 - 1687), when he painted with

Dealer

bv Jean Moust
old master paintings
Tel : 0032475743753
Fax : /

mariastraat 15
Bruges 8000

greattruthfulness the humble reality of the daily life of ordinary folks.All my paintings stand fully documented on my website:price = 24.367 EURThe attribution to Keil has been independently confirmed by Dr. Fred Meijer and Dr. Guido Jansen.BernhardKeil was an influential, international painter of Danish origin who specialisedin Rome in realistic representations of the life of simple people, often ofchildren. His art is an interesting mix of the very diverse influences that hepicked up during his travels to in and Italy. During his youth he had even beena pupil during two years of Rembrandt in Amsterdam. Ourpainting dates from Keil's Roman years (1656 - 1687), when he painted with greattruthfulness the humble reality of the daily life of ordinary folks.All my paintings stand fully documented on my website:https://www.jeanmoust.com/categories/portraits-genre-and-exterior-scenes/keil-bernhard/three-children-7016334