Description

19TH-CENTURY VINTAGE PAINTED TIN COFFEE POT Painted Tin Tripod Coffee Pot or Samovar. 19th-century vintage painted tin samovar, likely from the Louis-Philippe era. The base is domed and rests on three curved legs. The decoration features gold and silver accents on a black background and depicts a spring bouquet. This coffee pot, teapot, or samovar is complete; only the small burner is missing, but it has retained its openwork brass base. The paint is in good condition despite a few scratches visible in the photos. Dimensions: 43 cm tall. We deliver and ship worldwide; please contact us for an accurate quote.
