Description

Pair of wall sconces attributed to Perzel, circa 1970. A rare pair of gilded brass wall sconces in the style of Perzel's designs. Their geometric and streamlined design, combining cylindrical forms with tulip-shaped shades, reflects a pursuit of understated and timeless elegance. The quality of the brasswork, alternating between brushed and polished surfaces, underscores the refinement of these fixtures. Their aesthetic, at the crossroads of French modernism and a reinterpreted Art Deco style, allows them to blend seamlessly into both classic and contemporary interiors. With their sculptural presence and beautiful original patina, these wall sconces are true decorative objects, emblematic of French craftsmanship in high-end lighting.
