Puiforcat, 96-piece Set, Solid Silver, Richelieu Rat-tail Cutlery Set

15 500 EUR

Signature : Jean E. Puiforcat

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Sterling silver

Description

Large Louis XIV-style silverware set in sterling silver (950%). This is the Richelieu model from the prestigious Parisian firm Puiforcat. It is a complete set for 12 guests.The shape and style are inspired by the very first French silver cutlery from the second half of the seventeenth century, often described as "rat-tail."There are 3,600 grams of weighable pieces, excluding the knives.12 dinner forks 12 dinner spoons 12 dinner knives 12 dessert forks 12 dessert spoons 12 dessert knives 12 teaspoons 12 cake forks For a total of 96 pieces each engraved with two intertwined initials in the Mavelot style, likely an L and a G.

Dealer

Ian Panné

Antique silverware and general antiques

Tel : +32 475443619

Essene-kerkplein 5b

Affligem 1790