Description

A beautiful and rare Legras vase decorated with apple blossoms. One of the most beautiful and highly sought-after designs by Legras (along with the "Indiana" model), this stunning vase is entirely acid-etched with beautifully blended colors, ranging from various shades of green to blue, and features a rich botanical design as well, featuring white flowers with yellow pistils and wood-colored branches. A very poetic piece--I'll let you be the judge. Attractive shape with a bulbous base and a long, curved neck. 21 cm tall, in perfect condition, signed, circa 1900. A sublime Legras vase, a very beautiful Art Nouveau piece. Please note that I have a second identical vase (but they are not a pair) that will be offered under the same terms to the buyer of the first one (without any obligation, of course); see the last
