Description

This stunning collection includes five miniature musical instruments, including a balalaika, a harp, a cello, a violin, and a lyre-guitar. Each piece is finely crafted in gold-plated silver, embellished with intricate ornamental details, precious inlays, and small diamonds. The bodies of the instruments are made of malachite. Four of them rest on malachite bases, which enhance their elegance. The entire set reflects the masterful craftsmanship typical of mid-20th-century art and collectible objects. Dimensions: 14 to 18.5 cm
