Description

These elegant 19th-century French cabinets exemplify the refined craftsmanship and luxurious materials associated with the finest French decorative arts. Each cabinet is richly adorned with gilded bronze and intricate brass marquetry, creating a sophisticated interplay of textures and decorative details. The cabinets are topped with magnificent Portoro marble slabs, prized for their deep black background and striking golden veins. The combination of finely executed marquetry, gilded bronze ornamentation, and luxurious marble gives these two exceptional decorative pieces a strong visual presence. Their elegant proportions make them ideal as bedside tables, pedestal tables, or decorative accents in classic or eclectic interiors. Origin: France Period: 19th
