Description

An impressive pair of monumental bronze lions, created in Naples, Italy, in the 1980s. Crafted in patinated bronze, these powerful sculptures capture the majesty, strength, and nobility traditionally associated with the lion, one of the most iconic symbols of European decorative arts and architecture.The lions are sculpted with exceptional attention to detail, from their expressive faces and flowing manes to their muscular bodies and imposing stances. Their rich patina accentuates the sculptural depth and gives the pair a timeless allure, evoking the grand ornamentation of classical and Renaissance gardens.With their imposing dimensions and striking presence, these sculptures are ideal for entrances, estates, gardens, terraces, or prestigious interiors, where they create a
