Description

A spectacular pair of mythological bronze sculptures depicting two putti riding magnificent seahorses. Rich in movement and imagination, these decorative compositions draw their inspiration from classical mythology and the marine imagery common in Baroque and Neoclassical art. Expertly cast in bronze, each sculpture depicts a mischievous putto, gracefully mounted on a stylized seahorse, creating a dynamic composition full of energy and elegance. The detailed modeling of the figures, the fluidity of the forms, and the sculptural balance attest to exceptional craftsmanship and a strong decorative presence. With their impressive dimensions and mythological theme, these sculptures are ideal for large interiors, gardens, fountains, or architectural installations, where they evoke the splendor of
