Description

An elegant monumental sculpture depicting Venus, the classical goddess of beauty and love, masterfully carved from Vicenza stone and created in Italy in the 1950s. Inspired by the timeless ideals of Greco-Roman antiquity, the figure embodies grace, harmony, and refined classical beauty.Carved from the famous Vicenza stone, a material highly prized in Italian architectural and sculptural traditions, the sculpture features soft modeling, balanced proportions, and a majestic presence. Its impressive dimensions make it particularly well-suited for gardens, terraces, courtyards, entryways, or any classically inspired architectural setting.The stone's weathered texture accentuates the sculpture's timeless character, while its elegant silhouette creates a striking focal
