Description

An elegant pair of classic architectural plaster capitals, dating from the 1950s. Inspired by the great architectural traditions of ancient Greece and Rome, these decorative elements feature refined proportions and richly modeled ornamentation, characteristic of the classical style. Originally designed as architectural elements or decorative models, these capitals possess a strong sculptural presence and can be used as striking decorative objects, plinths, garden ornaments, or interior architectural accents. Their finely detailed surfaces evoke the craftsmanship and elegance of historic classical architecture. Thanks to their balanced proportions and timeless design, these capitals are ideal for traditional and contemporary interiors seeking a sophisticated architectural touch. Origin:
