Description

An impressive, monumental terracotta vase, made in Italy in the 1950s, featuring a magnificent glaze and elegant side handles. Combining the traditional forms of Mediterranean ceramics with refined craftsmanship, this large vase possesses a striking architectural presence and timeless decorative charm.The rich glaze enhances the natural beauty of the terracotta while imparting depth, texture, and subtle variations in tone. Its generous proportions and sculptural handles evoke the large storage vases and ornamental urns that have characterized Italian decorative arts for centuries.Its imposing dimensions make it an exceptional centerpiece for gardens, courtyards, terraces, porches, entryways, or large interior spaces.Origin: ItalyPeriod: 1950sMaterial: Glazed terracottaDimensions:Height: 140
