

1970s Italian Hand-woven Wicker Elephant Side Table

1 400 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Other

Width : 61

Height : 54

Depth : 41

Description

1970s Italian Hand-Woven Wicker Elephant Side Table with Removable Tray Striking 1970s Italian elephant-shaped side table, entirely hand-woven in wicker. Designed by Vivai del Sud, a celebrated name in Mediterranean design, this mid-century piece stands out for its organic lines and unmistakable Riviera charm. In fully original condition, the table features a beautiful warm honey tone and an exceptionally fine weave, with perfectly balanced proportions. Every detail of the elephant--its contours, volume, and finish--reflects high-quality artisanal craftsmanship. The top tray is removable, making this piece not only sculptural and decorative but also highly functional. It works beautifully as a side or cocktail table, a bedside table, or as a statement accent in a living room,

Dealer

Anthony Short Antiques

18C & 19C Fine Period Antiques, Decorative Furniture & Works of Art

Tel : 00 44 7595603348

Mobile : 00 44 7595603348

Market Square

Petworth GU28 0AH

garden room, or sunroom. With its generous size, sculptural presence, and warm natural colors, this is a rare and highly decorative piece. Ideal for a French Riviera-inspired interior, a bohemian chic setting, or a contemporary organic project, it brings instant character, playfulness, and elegance to any space.