Description

A set of four decorative urns crafted from the famous Impruneta terracotta in Italy in the 1960s. Richly adorned with sculpted faun heads and elegant acanthus leaf motifs, these impressive urns draw their inspiration from the decorative vocabulary of Classical Antiquity and the Italian Renaissance. Handcrafted from the highly prized Impruneta terracotta, renowned for its durability and warm hues, each urn features remarkable sculptural details and a strong architectural presence. The expressive masks of fauns and the fluidly shaped acanthus leaves create a sophisticated composition that blends mythology, nature, and classical design. Perfect for French gardens, terraces, courtyards, verandas, or large interior spaces, these urns embody the timeless elegance of Italian decorative arts and landscape
