Description

This remarkable marble sculpture depicts the Minotaur, one of the most iconic figures in Greek mythology. Carved from light-colored marble, it depicts the legendary creature with the body of a man and the head of a bull, a powerful symbol of strength, mystery, and the ancient myths of Crete. The sculpture captures the dramatic character of the Minotaur through bold modeling and expressive forms, blending classical inspiration with sculptural presence. The lightness of the marble highlights the figure's contours and showcases the sculptor's craftsmanship, creating a work that is both decorative and evocative. With its mythological subject and imposing presence, this sculpture is ideal for collectors of classical art, mythology enthusiasts, and refined interiors inspired by
