Description

A large Italian terracotta storage jar from the 1950s, featuring two elegant side handles and a harmonious traditional shape. Inspired by centuries of Mediterranean pottery craftsmanship, this monumental pot embodies the rustic charm and timeless elegance of Italian decorative arts.Handcrafted from terracotta, the pot features a warm, natural color and an attractive patina, the result of decades of use and exposure to the sun. The sculptural handles enhance both its functionality and decorative appeal, while its generous proportions make it a striking centerpiece in any setting.Ideal for gardens, courtyards, terraces, porches, or large indoor spaces, this pot brings an authentic Mediterranean touch and an architectural presence wherever it is displayed.Origin: ItalyPeriod: 1950sMaterial:
