Description

A mid-20th-century Italian terracotta krater, notable for its elegant lobed body and four sculpted handles. Inspired by the grand ceremonial vases of classical antiquity, this architectural krater combines traditional craftsmanship with timeless Mediterranean design.Handcrafted from terracotta, this krater features a harmonious silhouette with perfect proportions and a lobed profile that creates a dynamic play of light and shadow across its surface. The four handles enhance its decorative presence and its connection to the vases of ancient Greece and Rome.Its generous dimensions and sculptural character make it an ideal focal point for gardens, terraces, courtyards, verandas, or refined interiors. The warm tones of the terracotta and its naturally weathered surface
