Description

A spectacular pair of monumental Italian marble urns dating from the 1950s, hand-carved with exceptional skill and attention to detail. Richly decorated in high relief with mascarons, scrollwork, and classical figures, these impressive works reflect the grandeur of Renaissance and Baroque garden ornamentation.Carved from solid marble by highly skilled Italian artisans, each urn displays remarkable sculptural depth and refinement. The elaborate relief decoration envelops the vases, creating a dynamic composition of mythological and ornamental motifs that reveals itself from every angle.With their exceptional dimensions and architectural presence, these urns are ideal for prestigious residences, French gardens, palace interiors, courtyards, or luxury landscaping projects.
