Marine Sculpture In Italian Marble, Mid-20th Century

55 450 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Marble

Description

A monumental marble sculpture, carved in Italy in the mid-20th century, depicting a captivating seascape. A man sits on a rock, blowing into a large conch shell. Rich in symbolism and classically inspired, the composition evokes the mythology and maritime traditions of the Mediterranean world.Entirely hand-carved from marble, the sculpture demonstrates extraordinary craftsmanship and artistic refinement. The anatomical modeling of the figure, the treatment of the drapery, the naturalistic rendering of the rocky base, and the finesse of the shell's details attest to the talent of a highly skilled sculptor. The quality of the craftsmanship suggests that this piece may have been commissioned as an ornament for a grand residence, a garden, or an architectural project.Its monumental dimensions

Dealer

Florin Antiques
Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme
Tel : 0034 671 362 406
Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31
Madrid 28004

and striking composition give the sculpture an imposing presence, making it an exceptional centerpiece for a large garden, courtyard, entryway, fountain, or renowned art collection.Origin: ItalyPeriod: Mid-20th centuryMaterial: Hand-carved marbleSubject: Marine and mythological themeDimensions:Height: 250 cmWidth: 200 cmDepth: 120 cmCondition: Good overall condition, showing slight signs of wear due to age and exposure to the elements. The marble has acquired a beautiful natural patina that highlights its sculptural character and authenticity.Keywords: Florin Antiques, Monumental marble sculpture, Italian marble art, Marine sculpture, Mythological figure, Classical sculpture, Hand-carved marble, Neoclassical art, Triton-style figure, Seated male figure, Shell sculpture, Garden sculpture, Garden decoration, Architectural ornament, Monumental statuary, Italian craftsmanship, Luxury landscaping, Mid-20th-century Italian sculpture, Museum-quality decoration, Collectible piece.