Description

A pair of bronze sculptures depicting centaurs, created during the first half of the 20th century and inspired by the rich mythology of ancient Greece. These dynamic figures blend human and equine forms, embodying the strength, vitality, and legendary character associated with classical mythological subjects. Expertly cast in bronze with a rich black patina, the sculptures feature refined modeling and expressive movement. The dark bronze contrasts beautifully with the marble bases, enhancing the visual impact and refinement of the ensemble. The centaur, one of the most iconic creatures of classical mythology, has long been a favorite subject in European decorative arts. These sculptures, combining artistic refinement with a strong decorative presence, are ideal for libraries, offices, console
