Description

A richly decorative bronze sculpture depicting a young boy blowing a horn, standing on a sculpted shell-shaped pedestal. Created in Italy in the early 20th century, this work draws inspiration from classical marine and mythological themes, which were frequently featured in European decorative arts. Crafted with great skill in patinated bronze, the figure is modeled with remarkable finesse and attention to detail, capturing the child's youthful energy and expressive movement. The seashell-shaped base reinforces the composition's maritime character, evoking fountains, maritime mythology, and the decorative traditions of Italian gardens and villas. The rich patina accentuates the sculpture's depth and elegance, while its imposing dimensions make it an ideal centerpiece for a garden, fountain, veranda, entryway, or
