Description

A charming Art Nouveau vase with a lakeside design by Gallé. Well-known among collectors, this design is entirely etched. It features a three-dimensional scene depicting tall trees in the foreground, the river, and the opposite bank in the background. The result is very beautiful. Note the fine engraving and the balanced colors, with green in the central section and a honey-colored background in the upper part. A beautiful 27 cm piece, voluminous with its wide shape and small straight neck, in perfect condition, signed within the design, circa 1900. A beautiful Art Nouveau vase, featuring a lakeside design that is always sought after.
