Description

A charming 19th-century painting depicting an old half-timbered watermill on a mountain stream amidst lush natural surroundings, this gouache is a beautiful Swiss curiosity, masterfully painted in soft hues; It displays a beautiful sense of realism and clear dedication. This lovely painting is beautifully presented under glass in its elegant, scalloped frame, adorned with gilded wooden corners. It is an intimate work full of romance, typical of German-speaking Switzerland, and in perfect condition.
