

Antique Patinated Bronze Trainable Cobra

200 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Width : 8cm

Height : 14cm

Description

Antique solid bronze sculpture depicting a snake (cobra or naja type) coiled upon itself, raising its head with its mouth slightly open. This beautifully crafted piece stands out for the fine details of its skin (hand-chiseled scales) and its original golden patina, softened by time. The underside of the structure features a threaded mounting system. The reverse side bears several significant markings guaranteeing its authenticity and its early 20th-century origin.
