Description

A pair of important Empire-style candelabra with six arms, made of gilded bronze with a patina and red marble, 19th century. These majestic candelabra feature a conical top adorned with a removable flame, surrounded by six light arms shaped like cornucopias and decorated with leaves and palmettes. This cluster of lights rests on a sphere supported by a tapered shaft. The shaft rests on a tripod base with lion's paw feet, set on a red Griotte marble and bronze plinth with water leaf motifs. Good condition, superbly fresh original gilding. We ship worldwide; please contact us for an accurate shipping quote.
