Description

This beautiful painting is in excellent condition and ready to hang. The front depicts a tree-lined path that draws the eye toward the center of the painting, where an elegant woman in a white dress stands in front of a house's gate. The reverse side reveals an olive grove, likely in Auguste Renoir's garden in Cagnes-sur-Mer, where he enjoyed painting. Here again, the artist has created a perspective that draws the eye toward the center of the painting, toward the sea. The artist Raymond Gaudet was born in Grenoble in 1889 and died in Cagnes-sur-Mer in 1967; he spent part of his life in the vicinity of Saint-Marcellin (Isère). Dimensions of the painting with frame: 66.5 x 57 cm. Dimensions of the painting without frame: 55 x 46 cm. Shipping with invoice, fast, careful, and very secure.
