Description

Blue-Green Glazed Stoneware Gourd-Shaped Vase, France circa 1905-1910 with a flattened body and flared neck, flanked by two lateral handles. The body shows a gentle central swelling when viewed in profile, giving the piece a subtle organic dynamism. Beaded relief decoration encircles the body, and the glaze displays nuanced shades of turquoise, cobalt blue, and deep green. Impressed "AM" mark beneath the base. Height:17.5 cm (6.9 in) Width: 13.5cm (5.3 in) Depth: 6 cm(2.4 in)Condition : A few micro-bubbles in the glaze, inherent to the firing process and typical of Metthey's work, highlighting the fully hand-crafted nature of the piece. Very good overall condition.
