Description

Portrait of a Man, Louis XVI Period, 18th Century. Oil on canvas depicting an artist, likely a painter, wearing a wig with a topknot, dressed in a black frock coat, a red waistcoat, and a slightly open white shirt, playing with the fashion codes of the era. Original canvas and stretcher (minor historical restoration). This portrait is presented in an 18th-century carved and gilded wooden frame from the Louis XVI period, retaining its original gold leaf gilding in very good condition. French School, Louis XVI period, 18th century
