Water-dropper From The Shipwreck Off The Coast Of Hoi An (15th Century)

300 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Vietnamese porcelain (or porcelain stoneware) water-dropper for making chinese ink, shaped like a deer and painted with cobalt blue underglaze.In very good condition with a glaze that is still quite shiny.In the same cargo, archaeologists found other examples shaped like monkeys, buffalos, elephants, turtles, frogs, fishes...Length: 5.5 cm. Weight: 35 g.Ref: (last four photos)Nguyen Dinh Chien & Pham Quoc Quan, 2008: "Ceramics on Five Shipwrecks off the Coast of Vietnam ", fig. 145, p. 170.Sotheby's, 12/03/2000: "Fine Asian Works of Art": lots 6303-6304.Free shipping in France via Colissimo tracked.To view other items: www.lamalledugouverneur.com

Dealer

La Malle du Gouverneur
Asian Antiques, Opium paraphernalia, Oceanic art
Mobile : 06 30 92 38 99

16 allée V. Hugo
Figeac 46100