

Richard Ginori "s. Cristoforo" Dinnerware Set - Milan, 1950s/1960s

1 100 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Description

A distinguished and elegant Richard Ginori porcelain dinner service from the refined "S. Cristoforo" line, produced in Milan between the 1950s and 1960s. The set stands out for its classic and timeless style, featuring a delicate floral decoration and an elegant ornamental border that enhances its profile. The S. Cristoforo line represents one of the most acclaimed productions of the Richard Ginori manufactory in the post-World War II era, renowned for the high quality of its porcelain and the elegance of its forms, ideal for both everyday use and formal dining. The set is in good overall condition, with normal signs of age and wear consistent with its age. Overall, it retains an excellent aesthetic appearance. Some pieces have chips and imperfections. Set composition: 1 soup tureen with

Dealer

Furlan Antichità Biella
Antiquités

Mobile : +39 3487652132

Via Milano 84

Biella 13900

lid1 bowl with lid1 sauce boat2 cake stands7 oval serving plates