

19th-century Oak Dining Table With Side-opening Drawers, France

3 750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oak

Width : 198

Height : 78

Depth : 72

Description

An elegant French oak dining table from the 1930s, embodying the timeless charm of rural craftsmanship. Its rectangular top rests on a sturdy frame with square legs and a crossbar, highlighting both its durability and balance. Its most remarkable feature is its two side-opening drawers, a rare and practical detail that lends it both charm and functionality. The warm patina of the oak reveals decades of careful use, with subtle marks and variations in tone that underscore its authenticity. This piece embodies the understated elegance of French country furniture: sturdy, pleasant to the touch, and versatile. Ideal as a dining table, writing desk, or display table, it will find its place in interiors that value authenticity and craftsmanship. Condition: Good vintage condition, with slight signs of wear consistent

Dealer

Gallery K7

Antiquités et design

Mobile : 0496420048

Kasteeldreef 7

Tielt 8760

with its age.