Description

Sculpted saint in solid walnut, with traces of polychromy from the 17th century. Depicted kneeling on a cushion, her right hand resting on her chest in a gesture of swearing an oath on the Holy Scriptures. Her left hand rests on a column supporting a book. Her hair, carefully styled and not unbound, frames a face marked by contemplation. The figure is dressed in a loose-fitting costume with soft folds, complemented by an elegant drape. Beautiful presence and fine quality of carving. Good overall condition. Natural wear consistent with age. Standard restorations.
