

---

Uniform Of A 2nd-class Carabiniere, Circa 1807-1810. Restored By Our Workshop.

5 850 EUR

Signature : Premier Empire

Period : 19th century

Condition : Restauré par notre atelier

Material : Other

Length : -

Width : /

Diameter : -

Height : /

Depth : -

Description

1806-style uniform, made of scarlet wool cloth with blue piping; lapels in blue French serge with white braid; fastens in the front with 5 hooks and rings over a height of 16 cm, then opens at the sides. At the top, the lapels are each trimmed along their outer edges with seven small-sized, matte-finish uniform buttons. The collar fastens at the front with 4 metal clasps and rings, 9 cm high. The sleeve facings are made of French blue serge with white braid, fastened by three small-sized uniform buttons, one of which is a pass-through button. Below the lapels, the right side of the jacket is trimmed with three large-module uniform buttons. At the back of the jacket, two large-module buttons are fastened at the waist. Fake pockets or horizontal half-pockets on the back with blue three-pointed braid, each point

Dealer

Cartouche 12

Souvenirs Historiques et Tableaux

Mobile : 0688971349

Rue du Pin 46100 Figeac

Lunan 46100

adorned with a large-sized uniform button, 16 cm wide. Blue de France turned-up lapels with white pomegranates. Shoulder strap straps made of white cloth on a blue background. In good condition. Restored by our workshop. White braid and buttons replaced. Wool twill and French blue serge fabric from the First Empire period.