Description

Spectacular Art Nouveau-style slip-glazed planter, featuring the typical colors of Belle Époque majolica. The high-relief design depicts stunning roses and foliage in a palette of vibrant and luminous colors. A highly decorative piece, ideal for adding a touch of elegance to your home. The richness and brilliance of the colors reflect the quality of majolica production. The planter features two handles. There are a few signs of wear on this planter, but they are minimal and barely visible. Based on diameter: 18 cm; Numbered 680 - 2 on the underside; the indented numbers are a mold mark typical of the major pottery workshops in France. Delivery is possible, with appropriate protective packaging, upon request.
